

A WORLD OF COLOUR

This Hardanger fiddle is a Norwegian folk violin. It was built in 1928 by a Norwegian immigrant, Anders Odegarden of Norway Valley, Alberta, and is made of spruce and maple. The fingerboard is inlaid with mother-of-pearl and ivory. A dragon's head decorates the scroll.

©CD 94-756 / 65-2